Dear Mr. Bell,

You telephoned me a few weeks ago and were looking for the Pay Period 10 report. What I sent to you was actually Pay Period 12 information. I was not aware that Pay Period 10 information had not been sent to you in May, while I was on vacation. As a result, the two previous reports that were sent to you had the incorrect pay period information. The June 29 report information actually reflects Pay Period 12 data. The July 25 report actually reflects Pay Period 14 data. My apologies for the confusion.

This is the PP10 report numbers of Manpower temporary employees performing APWU bargaining unit work.

The below list contains numbers for Pay Period 10/2005.
