DISBURSEMENT OF FUNDS AND ACCOUNTABILITY

- Once the student recipient is accepted into the academic program of their choice, APWU will deposit the scholarship amount specified with the Student Financial Aid Office of the college or program. Once begun, disbursements will continue consecutively for up to 3 years.
- The student recipient is responsible for providing the APWU with the disbursement request form and the original student transcript, showing the official grades, prior to APWU generating payment for the next year.
- Scholarship funds will be disbursed to the school for payment of tuition, room, board, books or fees.
- Awards are for continuous years of study at the selected institution. Students must notify the APWU National Secretary-Treasurer if changing institutions or vocational programs.
- APWU may discontinue awarding new scholarships; however, once a recipient has been chosen, the scholarship will continue as previously specified.
