The Nalcrest Foundation, Inc is a Letter Carrier Retirement Community owned and operated by the National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC). Nalcrest has been a customer of Staples for many years. The agreement between Staples and the US Postal Service to have Staples employees do the work of Postal Employees in Staples stores, causes Nalcrest to cancel doing business with Staples. Nalcrest acquired Staples Credit Cards to shop in store and online have been destroyed.

I suggest that Staples reconsider their business model and not do the work that secure and trained Postal Employees do. The USPS is the most efficient in the world delivering six days a week to every address in America. Promoting the USPS would be in Staples best interest rather than doing its work.

I would appreciate your response to this correspondence,
